PRESS RELEASE

18.04.2011

(Syed Ali Shah Geelani and Cheap Politics)

While assuring the migrant Kashmiri Pandits, who came to en-cash the benefits of PM Package for return to their home, for having safe and protected life forgot to visit the family of that boy who stood with the majority community during his lifetime and is missing from his home town Anantang w.e.f. 04.04.2011. It seems that the Chairman Teheek-e-Hurriyat Syed Ali Shah Geelani does not require the persons who lived in Kashmir during the period when it required the most.

KPSS is in utmost dismay that why Syed Ali Shah Geelani turned back on the Kashmiri Pandits who lived in the Kashmir during the past 22 years reason to which not a word was spoken about the missing boy or any kind of solidarity was shown towards the family who require it most than those who are just in Kashmir because of bread & butter and not by conviction.

It is well known fact that Syed Ali Shah Geelani favors the return of Kashmiri Pandits to the Valley but it seems that who live close to him are no more required, and KPSS find it the more politically motivated than a humanitarian touch.

Syed Ali Shah Geelani's "Return of Kashmiri Pandit Campaign" should had been started from Sheikhpura, Budgam as it houses the Kashmiri Pandits who lived in Valley and those who returned due to PM package. It would had been a balanced moved, but alas the great leader showed his political bend and isolated the members of Minority Community who lived with the Majority Community during the period when it meant the most.

Tehreek-E-Hurriyat Chairman Syed Ali Shah Geelani's statement about the protection of the Kashmiri Pandits population will be taken as more political and un-ethical as he could not protect the boy missing from the same area where he assured the protection of Kashmiri Pandits.

After the gap of 22 years, Syed Ali Shah Geelani visited the migrants camps just to please the Delhi and State Government and to create the faith among those who don't believe in him and his ideology of politics as till date he didn't visited a single Kashmiri Pandit location who lived and faced all odds with Majority Community during the turmoil period.

It is seems that Syed Ali Shah Geelani is trying to be “Budshah” of the present times and some politically motivated “Shri Bhattas” are helping him to do the job which will not be allowed at the cost of 2765 souls comprising of 651 families. KPSS shows strong resentment on the cheap political moves of Tehreek-E-Hurriyat Chairman, which shows he intends to please a third party better known to him.

KPSS demands from Tehreek-E-Hurriyat Chairman Syed Ali Shah Geelani that the culprits who demolished and desecrated the more than 500 temples, that he claims are protected, and their endowment properties, as they belong to the society whom he claims have control over. KPSS also demands the culprits who are responsible for the massacres of Kashmiri Pandit population and are at large because of the patronage from these tall leaders of the society.
