PRESS RELEASE

20.08.2013

(KPSS: Our silence be not taken as for granted)

KPSS wishes to express dislike on the incident that happened in Hawl Pulwama, in which some un-scrupulous elements were involved stone pelting on the Migrant Camp. Inmates of this Camp are those Kashmiri Pandits who returned back to Valley and joined different Government Departments under PM's Migrants rehabilitation programme.

KPSS do not see this incidence in isolation. As since, Gool, Kishtwar Communal violence, number of such incidences took place in Kashmir, which can not be taken for granted. To quote a few, on the very night when Gool Kishtwar Communal Violence happened, few youths in old city try to burn a temple alongwith two dozen Kashmir Pandits who have taken shelter in that Temple. Later the inmates showed some courage and the miscreants had to run from the scene. Non of the person from the majority community who live within vicinity came forward to save them or condemned this discreditable incident.

Recently some of the well educated University going youths threatened few Kashmiri Pandits living in down town area and expressed that they want to annihilate minorities as they are fed up by their very existence in the Valley.

If these incidents happen somewhere outside Kashmir, then the people who do these evil acts are called "Communal or Right Wing People", but if these acts happen in Kashmir, then how can be these people be named just "Miscreants".

KPSS express anguish that after living in Kashmir for entire turmoil period, and worked for peace and tranquility of Kashmir, a Kashmiri Pandit have to live in scary way. It clearly shows that the not enough has been done at ground zero to stabilize the situation in Kashmir and makes it conducive of a minority.

KPSS is not in a mood to take any lip sympathies from the separatists / main stream / religious leaders. As it has been experienced that by giving some sermons or press releases do not change the ground situation for the minorities. As these press releases and sermons are not executed efficiently by these leaders at ground level. Further separatists camp is cautioned not to send any such person or leader to these camps whose image is tinted and are responsible for the exodus and killing of minorities in Kashmir Valley. It shows that these camps take these kind of acts very leniently and show disrespect to the minority community. Also, KPSS is making it clear as if such intimidative acts are repeated either in individual or collective level, we will be forced to take any stern action against the culprits and above all our silence may not be taken as for granted. These people who take fun to intimidate minorities should be exposed and majority community by themselves should hand over to law enforcing agencies so that these ill minded people are given no opportunity to execute their evil plans.
